

Personal data processing and general conditions for submit application

By submitting the application, I am aware that the Swedish Film Institute will process my personal data in accordance with applicable personal data legislation in order to be able to handle my application for funding. As the applicant, I am responsible for informing the persons stated in the application that their information is processed by the Film Institute and the rights they have under applicable personal data legislation.

The Film Institute is processing the personal data to be able to fulfil the Film Institute's obligations to you as an applicant. The data is stored and used in recurring application procedures. The data is also used to provide industry-related information and invitations and to compile statistics. The information may also be published in our publications or press releases.

You can read more about your rights and how the Film Institute is processing your personal data on the Film Institute's website.

By submitting the application, I hereby confirm that:

- All information provided in connection with the application, and that all supplementary information that may be submitted is truthful and has been submitted with the approval of the authorized person.
- I have read and accept general conditions for film funding.
- I have read and accept the guidelines that apply to the applied funding.
- I have the right to represent the applicant. If I am not a signatory myself, I will send in a power of attorney proving my right to represent the applicant.
- Applicants will, if applicable, send in a deposit of the film to the Film Institute's Film Heritage according to specification.

I am aware that information submitted to the Film Institute is public records and may be disclosed in accordance with the principle of public access. More information on the Film Institute's handling of public records can be found here.
